

Activists defying the generals' regime in Egypt need your solidarity: here's how you can help ...

Stop the executions

Hundreds of people have been condemned to death in Egypt's military and civilian courts. Human rights groups say their trials were completely unfair. Among those facing execution are many members of the Muslim Brotherhood, including ousted president Mohamed Morsi.

egyptsolidarityinitiative.org/deathsentences

Send a postcard for Sondos and Shaimaa

Sondos Reda Abu-Bakr and Shaimaa al-Sabbagh were shot dead in the street because they dared to protest. Tell Tory Foreign Secretary to stop putting British 'business interests' before human rights and stop arms sales to Egypt.

egyptsolidarityinitiative.org/postcards

#FreeMahienour

Mahienour al-Masry, Yousef Shaaban and other activists are in prison on trumped charges awaiting the verdict in their appeal against a two-year jail sentence.

Call on the court to free them and all other political prisoners on 29-30 May.

egyptsolidarityinitiative.org/mahienour

29-30 May

Take action for #Egyprisoners

Join Egypt Solidarity at the People's Assembly protest in London on 20 June to spread the word about Egyptian activists' call for international action in solidarity with political prisoners on 20-21 June.

egyptsolidarityinitiative.org/prisonersolidarity

20-21 Jun